So what's it all about?

Our non-surgical Ultrasonic Liposuction makes losing inches from areas of your body such as your belly, hips, arms, legs and back easy! Those stubborn fatty areas of your body you would like to change will become flatter and firmer, in as few as 12 sessions of completely painless Ultrasonic Liposuction. You will be massaged, twice a week with ultrasound by our qualified, experienced consultants, ensuring you are looking and feeling fabulous!

We use Ultrasound technology similar to the kind used to carry out baby scans in hospitals, we even use the same gel. During the painless therapy all you will feel is a nice, warm sensation. This warm sensation is the fat turning to liquid and beginning to drain from your body.

As the Ultrasound passes through the fat cells inside your body it causes them to vibrate against each other, this causes the fat inside to change from a semi-solid state and to become a liquid. Once liquefied, the fat will begin to drain from the cell. The fat then passes through the lymph node system and exits the body through the digestive system in the normal manner. The fat will continue to drain from the body for the next 72 hours. To maximise lymph drainage and achieve the best results we recommend increasing activity levels to increase blood circulation.

Your consultant will chart your success and let you know exactly how many inches you have lost since your last session by measuring your target area before each treatment. We expect clients will need somewhere between 8 – 12 sessions per area to achieve their goals. You should allow 30 minutes per appointment and 3 days should be allowed between treatments.

Trouble fear sparked pub to bar Poles

EXCLUSIVE

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

POLISH football fans were banned from a pub during their country's match with England after management were warned of possible trouble.

The White House in St George's Square, Luton, had a sign outside the building stating 'ENGLAND FANS ONLY' on October 17, although the game was postponed until the next day.

Luton on Sunday was contacted by a member of Polish community who felt the sign was discriminatory and feared it could create further conflict between English and Poles in the town.

A spokesman for JD Wetherspoon, which owns the pub, said: "The manager and area manager were advised by the door security team (who work at the pub on behalf of Wetherspoon) that it would be a sensible approach not to have both sets of supporters in the same pub during the match as there was potential for trouble.

OFFENDING SIGN: Poles are told they are not welcome at the televised game

"The pub manager and staff have worked hard in the past year to ensure the pub is a safe place for customers to visit and this has been endorsed by the licensing officer.

"We felt it was the right approach to keep the two sets of supporters apart for this match while it was shown on TV in the pub.

"We appreciate that not everyone would agree with our approach, but we felt it was the right one on the advice received."

Wetherspoon refused to disclose the name of company which handles its security and said it is not its 'policy to pass on details of other companies'.

Not all members of the Polish community were upset with the decision. Peter Oskowski, chairman of The Polish Club based in Dunstable, said: "I don't think what they did is bad because they were trying to stop people from behaving badly. It wasn't a big problem and I can understand why they did that."

A spokeswoman for Bedfordshire Police said: "We work hard with all licencees to encourage responsible drinking and behaviour at all times – in particular when high profile sporting events take place."

Luton Borough Council said: "This was not a matter for the council to decide. However, we are aware that for Luton Town home games, only local supporters are allowed in the venue (the pub) on safety grounds."

INSPIRED: The Duke of Kent with council leader Hazel Simmons and Paralympian gold medallist Jonnie Peacock

Duke wowed by facilities

THE Duke of Kent described the new Inspire Sports Village as the 'best sports centre he had ever seen' when he officially opened the facility on Friday.

Paralympic gold medallist Jonnie Peacock held a question and answer session with pupils from Bushmead Primary, Stopsley Primary and Stopsley High schools, while His Royal Highness was treated to a spectacular diving display.

Prince Edward, who unveiled the plaque, did not have much to say, but did announce: "I'm pleased to be here and declare the centre formally open."

Mr Peacock said: "It is places like this that will inspire the next generation."

Forum pair sacked for ‘Scouser’ jokes upset

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SENIOR member of a community group has been removed from his role for emailing derogatory jokes about Liverpudlians.

Victor Cowell received a ‘vote of no confidence’ from fellow board members at Marsh Farm Community Forum (MFCF) after an email he sent in August containing a list of jokes about Scousers was leaked to Luton on Sunday.

The MFCF board said they met on October 16 to discuss the ‘situation’ as the revelations about the email had ‘caused a great deal of distress to the residents of Marsh Farm and officers of Marsh Farm Futures’.

During the meeting Jack Nelson, the Forum’s treasurer, also received a ‘vote of no confidence’ and was also stripped of his role for writing a letter to LoS defending Mr Cowell which was published the week after our story.

Jokes in the email deemed offensive included: ‘What do you call a 27-year-old Liverpool girl? – A granny’ – and ‘What’s the most confusing day in Liverpool? – Fathers’ Day’.

Joyce Yearwood, MFCF chairman, released a statement saying: “MFCF met on October 16 to consider the conduct of Victor Cowell and Jack Nelson.

“After due consideration of the facts in this case a vote of ‘no confidence’ was recorded by a unanimous vote of the membership of the Forum.

“Both Mr Cowell and Mr Nelson have therefore been removed from their executive positions within the Forum.”

Mr Cowell told LoS: “The people who have caused the detrimental comments about myself wanted me out and I don’t care anymore because of what they did and the way they did it.

“But if people still want me I will still be available to take on other community roles.”

At the time of sending the email Mr Cowell defended his actions and claimed he was a victim of hacking.

He said: “The original email was sent to my daughter and one other person who is a Liverpudlian.

“The jokes were about Liverpool people and the other person I sent them to didn’t find them offensive.”

McDonald’s closes over cockroach

A MCDONALD’S outlet will be closed for five weeks for refurbishment – following Luton on Sunday’s revelation that there was a cockroach problem.

After inspectors last week found ‘cockroach activity’ at the George Street premises, the restaurant was closed overnight on Tuesday for ‘essential maintenance’.

A spokesman for McDonald’s said: “The restaurant was closed on Wednesday to complete a thorough investigation into the reported pests.

“The refurbishment will include new seating, tables and a till area.”

1700s hat restored

A 300-year-old hat – one of five of its kind – has been rescued from ruin and given a home at a Luton museum.

The 18th century summer hat, which originates from Southern Europe and is thought to have been made either in Gran Canaria or The Azores, was unveiled on Monday at Wardown Park Museum as part of its famous headwear collection.

It was discovered behind an interior wall in a 17th century cottage in Essex and was carefully treated using 21st century technology.

The hat, which was originally cream or white, was in such a fragile state that it had to be sensitively treated for pests to limit further damage, and also to rule out any risk of contaminating other hats in the museum’s collection.

It is in the style of Tenerife lace, made from a plant fibre and the shape is created from circles of cane.

The painstaking restoration work was done by the IMC Group’s Hanwell division.

newsbriefs

DEATH ‘NOT SUSPICIOUS’

THE sudden death of a teenager found in an alleyway is not being treated as suspicious.
The body of 19-year-old Clinton Groom, of Osborn Road, Barton-le-Clay, was found in Chiltern Road on Wednesday night.

Police were called and the man’s family have been informed.

A Bedfordshire Police spokesman said: “A post mortem examination has confirmed that Clinton died of natural causes, under no suspicious circumstances.”

Further tests will be carried out to confirm the actual cause of death.

BOND IS ‘TOO VIOLENT’

A COUNCILLOR revealed this week he had never seen a James Bond film in his life as they were ‘not his cup of tea’.

During an appearance on BBC Three Counties Radio on Thursday, Liberal Democrat leader Councillor David Franks was asked if he had bought tickets for the new 007 movie Skyfall – to which he replied he had never seen a Bond flick.

Cllr Franks told Luton on Sunday: “I am not knocking it and I am not having a go at people who enjoy it but films that are full of violence are not my cup of tea. It’s not the sort of film that entertains me.”

FIREWORKS EXTRAVAGANZA THOUSANDS are expected to gather to watch the spectacular Luton fireworks display on Saturday.

Popes Meadow, in Old Bedford Road, will be the venue for what organisers are anticipating will be ‘the best yet’.

Entry is free and there will be rides and refreshments available from 6.30pm, with the fireworks display itself exploding into life at 7.30pm.

Drivers are informed that Old Bedford Road will be closed from 5-9pm.

Spectators are asked not to bring to the display any animals or fireworks, including sparklers.

Spa rocked by claims man spied in showers

EXCLUSIVE

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON Hoo Hotel is looking at reviewing access to its changing rooms after a woman said she caught a male guest watching her in the shower.

The five-star hotel, golf and spa resort said it is 'deeply disturbed' by the voyeurism 'incident', which happened on October 1, and is looking at the possibility of putting locks on the external spa changing room doors.

The woman left a review of her day at the hotel on the TripAdvisor website which said: "As the day came to an end I went to the ladies' changing room to shower and get changed.

"While I was showering, unbeknownst to me a male hotel guest came into the ladies' changing room and started to watch me through the glass shower cubicle.

"I was shocked when I saw an eyeball pressed against the gap in the glass shower door. Another lady came into the changing room and disturbed the male who ran off."

Matthew Long, the hotel's general manager, said he was contacted by a member of the leisure club staff and spoke to the husband of the lady involved.

He said: "I have since been in verbal and written correspondence with the couple and provided information to a police officer who visited the hotel on October 3 after they contacted the police.

"The managing director of Elite Hotels has also written to the couple and I have responded to the TripAdvisor post of October 20.

"We are deeply disturbed by this incident, which was extremely distressing for the person involved, and will do all we can to assist Bedfordshire Police with their enquiries.

PLUSH: Luton Hoo hotel and spa

"It is not normal industry practice to lock external changing room doors, however we will assess whether access to the changing areas needs to be addressed.

"It is the first instance of its kind across our portfolio of hotels and we shall use our best endeavours to guard against any repetition."

A spokesman for Bedfordshire Police said: "We were called following a complaint by a member of the public of voyeurism.

"She was spoken with and despite further enquiries, a lack of description by the victim, or any witnesses, meant the case was officially recorded and filed.

"Unless further information or evidence comes to light the matter won't be investigated further."

Path security beefed up after chief visit

THERE are 'ambitious plans' to improve a notorious footpath.

Dog Kennel Walk, in Dunstable, was highlighted as a crime hotspot after a heavily pregnant teenager was attacked there in June.

Bedfordshire Police Chief Constable Alfred Hitchcock made a special visit to the pathway himself, and this week a 24-year-old man was robbed there.

Central Bedfordshire Councillor Nigel Young said: "We have ambitious plans to upgrade the whole route and are working with contractors and local adjoining land owners to implement solutions that deliver a major improvement.

"Over this winter we will radically cut back encroaching vegetation and raise the tree canopy so that the route receives far greater levels of natural light and surveillance from adjacent properties.

"At the same time we will be looking at where we need to add to the street lighting and site CCTV cameras linking into our existing network."

A police spokesman said: "The chief constable visited Dog Kennel Walk and has now referred the matter to the force architectural liaison officer who has responsibility for advising local authorities."

Peace group seeks justice for Delaney

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

AN ANTI-VIOLENCE group has pleaded for peace in the wake of the murder of teenager Delaney Brown.

The Non-Violence Alliance (NVA) said there is a 'real fight for justice going on in Luton' and is 'calling on young and old to promote peace' following the killing of Mr Brown.

The 19-year-old died on September 5 after he was struck by a car in Vincent Avenue. The NVA said it is supporting the ongoing police investigation into the murder and is encouraging those who have information about what happened to come forward and make statements.

Lenos Wilson, founder of the NVA, said: "Many people are hoping and thinking that give it a couple of weeks and this will blow over and they can get back to their normal lives.

"We all know that where it can, life must go on, but for some who have lost a loved one through senseless violence, life as they know it stops there.

"As a community we must not ignore the challenges we face, but embrace them to minimise and eradicate violence. I want the whole community to support what we are trying to do.

"Seeking justice sometimes takes courage beyond measure. Let us not look at peace as being weak or passive, conceding or giving up. Battling, confronting and overcoming our emotions can be seen as a real sign of strength, courage and fighting for peace.

"If we can imagine our community as a jigsaw puzzle then individually we are only one part of an important piece that makes up the whole picture. We must all come together and unite to transform negative violent attitudes.

"The NVA is encouraging anyone who has information about the murder of Delaney to contact the police. Justice can only be done if people are willing to make statements that can be used in a court of law."

If you can help bring Mr Brown's killer to justice call the police in confidence on 01707 355666, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

VICTIM: Delaney Brown was killed by a car

Puzzle of illegally parked police panda

OFFENDER: The parked panda

POLICE say they don't know why a panda car was illegally parked on the pavement outside one of their stations.

Bedfordshire Police are looking into the 'circumstances' that led to the vehicle being left outside the police station in West Street, Dunstable, after receiving a complaint from a member of the public.

A force spokeswoman said the car had been parked on September 30 and it would take time to establish who was driving it and the reasons it was parked there.

She added: "We do not condone illegal parking by officers but if it had been done because they were called to an emergency we would hope people would be understanding."

Mayor gets first go on big wheel

A GIANT panoramic wheel in Luton's St George's Square was opened on Tuesday morning in an official ceremony attended by the town Mayor.

Lutonians gathered to watch Councillor Syd Knight cut a ceremonial ribbon before taking a ride on the 35-metre tall wheel.

The 144-passenger wheel is open Sunday to Thursday 11am-7pm, and Friday to Saturday 10am-10.30pm.

Landlord fined for 'death trap' home

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A LANDLORD has been fined £53,000 for letting out a home described as a 'death trap'.

Khaled Ahmed, 36, who failed to attend Luton Magistrates' Court, was ordered to pay the cash after being found to be operating an unlicensed, unsafe and overcrowded House in Multiple Occupation (HMO) in Dunraven Avenue, Luton.

Following a number of complaints from tenants living at the property, officers from the council's private sector housing team carried out an inspection of the eight-bedroom, four-storey house where a number of health and safety breaches were found.

The officers not only discovered that the property was operating without a licence, but also that it had been altered internally.

One young female student was living in the attic space without windows, ventilation or heating, while officers also found obstructed fire exits, accumulations of rubbish, lack of fire doors and fire alarms, and disrepair to the property.

The magistrate described the property as a 'death trap' run for commercial gain and convicted Ahmed for all breaches.

He was fined £15,000 for failing to license the property, a further £4,000 for each of the nine breaches of the Management of HMO Regulations 2006, which totalled a further £36,000, and a £15 victim surcharge. The council was also awarded £1,957 costs.

Total fines and costs amounted to £52,957, one of the highest fines recorded in Luton.

Cllr Tom Shaw said: "This is one of the worst cases we have ever seen with tenants being subjected to dangerous and potentially life-threatening conditions."

'Angels at hospital saved my life'

SIR – So often there are bad stories written about Luton & Dunstable Hospital, but I felt compelled to write after they saved my life.

I had to call an ambulance after I fell ill on October 14. The ambulance staff were fantastic and I was taken to A&E where I didn't have to wait and was never left by myself.

I was diagnosed with pneumonia and taken to Ward 12 where everyone, from the doctors and nurses to the cleaning staff and those that made me a cup of tea, were all doing an amazing job.

They are all angels.

I am now on the road to recovery and it is all down to the staff at the hospital, particularly those in Ward 12.

It is often the case that good experiences don't get talked about as much, so I wanted to publicly say thank you.

Susan Robb,
Littelfield Road, Luton

PRAISE: Luton and Dunstable Hospital

Concern at his beliefs

SIR – I am writing concerning last week's article about the meeting Victim Support called for the Police Crime Commissioner (PCC) candidates.

I would like to thank them for not inviting the British Freedom Party candidate and EDL leader Kevin Carroll.

The PCC job is a very important position of power and it concerns me we have a candidate with his beliefs. I don't believe there should be a platform for him, and I wonder how the other candidates feel about sharing a stage with their party.

Last weekend, several EDL members were arrested. They were travelling in the back of a white van on their way to take part in an alleged planned disturbance.

Personally, I will not be voting for this person.

Fight for victims' cash

SIR – The Coalition Government plans to slash the Criminal Injuries Compensation Scheme which provides a last resort for financial support for the victims of crime who have sustained serious and often life-changing injuries.

Initial proposals would have left almost 90 per cent of the victims of serious crime either no longer eligible for compensation or with greatly reduced awards.

Following objections from MPs the planned cuts were put on hold.

However, the Justice Secretary, Chris Grayling MP, has indicated that he supports all of the major cuts to the scheme and will bring them back to Parliament on Thursday.

The changes will affect any innocent victim who has been injured in the course of a crime, and who makes a claim later than two weeks after the changes are passed by Parliament – probably the middle of November.

So if you or someone you know has sustained injuries as the result of crime, contact the Criminal Injuries Compensation Authority immediately on 0300 003 3601 to make an application for compensation. Your trade union or local Victim Support can help you make a claim.

I would urge your readers who are concerned about these cuts, which will add insult to the injuries already suffered by the victims of crime, to contact their MP and urge them to oppose any changes which will stop seriously injured victims from receiving the compensation they need.

Ask your MP to sign EDM 422 which calls on the Government to protect compensation for injured victims of crime and urge them to write to the Secretary of State for Justice.

General Secretary of Usdaw (the Union of Shop, Distributive and Allied Workers)

Sharing the PM's vision

SIR – It's now two months since the opening ceremony of the amazing London Paralympics.

Two weeks ago the Prime Minister, in a moving reference to his son, said that he hoped the legacy of the Paralympics would be that 'more people would see the boy and not the wheelchair'.

I work for Vitalise, a charity that provides desperately-needed respite breaks for people with disabilities and carers, and we share the PM's vision.

But after the euphoria of the Games, has anything really changed? We did a survey of our guests and more than half told us that they didn't think the public had a better understanding of their lives as a result of the Paralympics.

Wouldn't it be awful if, after all the good work of the Paralympics, we allowed people with disabilities to fade from public view and become invisible to society once again? We must not let that happen.

People with disabilities have enormous potential. They want to play a part in society, to make a contribution, but too often they are held back by the negative attitudes of others.

The Paralympics have done an enormous amount of good, but until we start thinking in terms of what people with disabilities can do, not what they can't, there is little prospect of any lasting change.

Make a Difference Day is this week and I'd like to ask your readers to help us keep the Paralympic flame burning.

Please join us in calling for a society where people with disabilities have the same opportunities to pursue their dreams and make a meaningful contribution to their communities as everybody else.

For more information about our vital work or to support Vitalise, please visit www.vitalise.org.uk or call 0303 303 0147.

Don't scare the animals

SIR – Fireworks may be beautiful and exciting for us, but for animals they can be terrifying.

Cats and dogs are reduced to fearful, shivering wrecks; sheep can spontaneously abort; horses gallop into fences; and rabbits have been known to die from the shock.

However, there are steps we can take to minimise their suffering. Firstly, please consider attending a public fireworks display rather than setting them off in your back garden.

One central display will scare fewer animals, and is likely to be set further away from homes and their animal inhabitants.

Keep cats and dogs indoors from the afternoon onwards and bring rabbits and guinea pigs inside as well (or at least cover their home with a thick blanket to muffle the noise).

Also, be sure to check that hedgehogs and other wild animals have not made a home in your bonfire before you light it. Have a happy, and safe, fireworks night.

Meanwhile, November is Vegan Month, and this year we are encouraging compassionate people everywhere to register for the Great Vegan Challenge.

Vegans don't consume any animal products, and this can be for a variety of good reasons – their health, for animals or for the planet.

And the number of vegans worldwide is increasing fast, as the benefits are becoming increasingly well known.

Why not join them by taking the Great Vegan Challenge 2012, and trying this compassionate and healthy diet for 30 days?

WHAT'S a Police and Crime Commissioner? And, more to the point, what use are they? First things first.

The Government has decided to get rid of the Police Authorities up and down the country.

These are – soon to be were – a group of people, some independent, some representatives of the local councils and some magistrates, who are charged with ensuring there is efficient policing and also some accountability.

Each year they elect a chairman, who works closely with the Chief Constable over priorities for policing, although the Police Authority has no power over day-to-day operational policing. They do have the power to hire and fire Chief Constables, although firing them is extremely rare.

They also have some budgetary powers, but as almost all the money for policing comes from central Government, not much. At the moment they can choose how and where to make the cuts.

The Police Authorities were born in the 1980s. Before that the police were part of the county council remit but the Thatcher Government did not like that as they perceived too much political interference in policing. On November 15 the Police Authorities will be disappearing and we will be electing Police and Crime Commissioners. Or at least those of us who can be bothered to vote. These PCCs will have a small committee of councillors to help him/her, will work closely with the Chief Constable over priorities for policing but not have any control over day-to-day operational policing. They will have some budgetary powers but mainly how and where to make the cuts.

So what is the difference and what is the point? It is more a case of direct democracy, as the PCC will be elected by the people.

He will have no more power than the chairman does at the moment but will be able to make a fuss and a noise.

These PCCs will almost certainly be from the main political parties, as they have the troops to canvass and the money to influence the would-be voters. There is also the small matter of a £5,000 deposit.

Being a political appointment, however, it will provide a stage for politicians to trumpet their views and cause a bit of trouble.

I think it fair to say it is not going down well with serving police officers at the moment. With them facing the choice of redundancy or working out of temporary sheds, the idea of being lorded over by some politico on at least £70,000 a year seems at best irrelevant.

Speaking to retired officers the other day – post Leveson, talking to serving officers is fraught with problems – they were unanimous in their disapproval. Much of what they said cannot be repeated in a family newspaper, or even in this one.

But it comes down to a combination of what is the point, have we not bigger things to worry about and why is this Government, a Conservative Government, reintroducing party politics into local management of the police? Policing is a political issue, often in regards to ensuring it is fair to all citizens and that certain groups are not 'picked on', while others can get away with, well not quite murder but quite a lot.

But the overwhelming majority of the population want them to uphold the law, catch criminals and make our communities feel safer. We probably don't need them to tell us the time any more, but the basics remain what it is all about.

Still, in just under three weeks time, we will all be asked to vote for our new Police Commissioner.

I don't think it will be long before he or she will be shining a light into the air, hoping that Batman will come to our aid.

Henna burn 'felt like a hot cooker'

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A WOMAN who suffered skin burns from an illegal henna product said she felt she had touched a 'hot cooker'.

Shifa Khatun, 21, bought a henna tattoo product from a store in Bury Park, Luton, and says she was not warned it was potentially dangerous.

Shifa said: "When I got home I tried it on because I was going to be doing some bridal henna."

"The pain felt like I had burnt myself on a cooker. I have heard stories about black henna and how other people have had to amputate their arms because it went into their bloodstream."

Luton Borough Council's Trading Standards service has launched a crackdown and is looking to take illegal versions of henna products off the market.

Henna is widely used in the Asian community as a traditional way of decorating skin, hair and fingernails, particularly around festivals or celebrations.

Most of it is perfectly safe if used properly but there are a small number of products being distributed which contain excessive quantities of a chemical known as PPD (p-Phenylenediamine) which can cause severe allergic reactions.

A council spokeswoman said: "As far as we are aware the shop is no longer selling this particular item."

"Several attempts to purchase the product were made. However, no further products were found at this shop."

"A Trading Standards officer has also provided advice to the shop owner."

We need to listen to CHILD abuse is an uncomfortable subject to discuss.

Christian Okoli, 26, of Farley Hill, Luton, works as a mentor at Focus Residential care home.

Although Christian could not divulge too much detail about the children he works with, he explained how some of those at the care home have gone through 'traumatic experiences' and it's the job of the staff at the home to help them integrate back into the community.

So how did Christian get involved in the care industry in the first place?

He said: "In 2009 I was working in mental care and with people with learning disabilities.

"That was my first experience of the care industry so I kind of stumbled into care work in that sense and it has blossomed from that.

"The people I worked with then couldn't do certain things for themselves, but when I came to working with children I found they were more capable and coherent and I try to teach them about the workings of society.

"When I grew up my father was a strict disciplinarian and it made me want to rebel sometimes, but looking at it now, we had a decent upbringing.

"We know about right and wrong and I try to bring what I have learnt in my childhood to the job."

He added: "We have psychologists who come in and give us advice in dealing with them. They say that we must be positive around these children because they are like sponges, they can pick things up and absorb a lot of information.

IN the past few weeks the child abuse allegations that have been levelled at television presenter Sir Jimmy Savile have shocked the nation. This week our reporter CARL MUNGAZI caught up with staff at Focus Residential Care in Leagrave to find out about some of the work that goes into looking after vulnerable children.

"I am currently mentoring one young person and have been doing it since last month. We do things such as playing tennis in the park and other daily activities where we might meet other people.

"It's about meeting different people and it's a case of me taking the young person to one side and teaching them how to interact with these people."

Neil Harriott is the manager of Focus Residential care home and he thinks improvements can be made in the child care sector such as people 'listening to children more'.

He said: "I do this work because it's fulfilling to see young people go through things and come out at the end.

"At the home we deal with young people with issues like having parents who abuse alcohol or who have been sexually abused. Sometimes we try to get them back into their own home.

"Professionals need to begin listening to children more and sometimes in our sector it's a case of our services being resource led and not needs met, so we can't do as much as we would like.

"There are lots of challenges I face everyday but I have to remember that these young people have more challenges than me.

"These are kids who have to try and fit into homes where there is a mixture of different people. This sometimes causes personality clashes or you might get a situation where one person might remind them of somebody from their past."

Christian is also an executive producer on a short film which looks at the life of a child abuser.

Entitled 'Joshua', it is unique in that it approaches this subject from the perspective of the abuser. Its aim is to show that people who target children in this manner are not monsters, but people who, on the face of it, live normal lives and are a part of the community.

Foster children aren't the only ones to benefit.

If you foster, your own children benefit by widening their life skills through caring, mentoring and developing alongside others. They will learn how to make new friends, share their home and their parents and become well-rounded individuals.

This week is celebrating sons & daughters but we would like to hear from you regardless of whether you have your own children, are married, in a single-sex partnership, single or divorced.

Brave phone shop staff grab 'robber'

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

MOBILE phone shop staff bravely fought off four would-be robbers who raided their store – and apprehended one of the attackers.

Police have released CCTV images of two men they want to speak to in connection with the attempted robbery on Monday at 5.55pm at Comm Tech in Marsh Road, Luton.

The four raiders entered the shop with their hoods pulled up and tried to smash open cabinets before attacking the three members of staff who were working at the time.

The shop employees were able to fight back and managed to detain one of the attempted robbers as the other three fled.

Officers arrived and arrested the man. Another has been arrested in relation to the attempted robbery.

The three shop workers suffered only minor injuries and have been praised for their bravery by detectives.

Detective Constable Surfraz Hussain is keen to hear from anyone who may know who the offenders are, witnessed the attack, or may have seen them in the Marsh Road area following the attempted robbery.

IN THE FRAME: Grainy CCTV images of two men detectives want to speak to

He said: "The shop workers showed great bravery in challenging these four offenders and thanks to their actions we were able to arrest one man at the scene and another shortly afterwards."

"We do need the assistance of the public in identifying the two other suspects and I'd urge anyone with information to come forward."

Detectives are keen to identify and locate the two outstanding suspects, who are both described as Asian men, in their late teens or early 20s, of average build and wearing dark clothing.

If you have information relating to this incident, contact DC Hussain, in confidence, on 01582 473055, the non-emergency number 101, or text information to 07786 200011.

Damaged parks are tip-top again

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

WARDOWN Park and Popes Meadow have been restored to their former condition following 'considerable' damage from the Love Luton Festival in July after which they 'resembled farmland'.

Torrential rain coupled with the number of people at the sites left the green parkland in a muddy mess.

A Luton Borough Council spokesman said: "The rain and number of people attending the festival presented a big challenge for organisers, resulting in a considerable amount of ground damage."

"The council's parks services were undeterred by the situation and immediately started recovery work on the damaged areas to restore the two parks back to their former condition, which for a short amount of time resembled farmland."

"However, the weather that had been so instrumental in contributing to the damage remained through the summer months, allowing for the germination of the seed to quickly establish and restore the parks to their pre-event condition."

Council's diversity honour

A COUNCIL has achieved success at an equality and diversity awards.

Central Bedfordshire Council's efforts were recognised in the Bedfordshire Race and Equalities Council's Equality and Diversity Awards 2012.

It scooped the 'Leading Change' category for its work in rolling out the Freedom Programme.

In the 'Business Innovation' category, the council's partner DisabledGo took top place for its work developing an online access guide.

The council was also awarded the runner-up position in the 'Partnership Working' category for work undertaken with the gypsy and traveller community to help employability rates.

Cllr Maurice Jones said: "This is a fantastic result and I'm really pleased that our hard work in promoting equality and diversity has been recognised in this way."

"My thanks go to all those involved in these really important projects."

Thinker calls for a positive approach

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A HOUSING association celebrated its 50th anniversary this week in an event that featured a prominent political thinker and mentorator.

Phillip Blond, director of think tank ResPublica, was the guest speaker at the Luton Community Housing (LCH) 50th anniversary celebration dinner at Auction House, in Crescent Road, on Wednesday night.

LCH is a not-for-profit housing association that offers accommodation in the town and supports various sections of the community who have housing needs.

Mr Blond spoke about the current economic and social difficulties facing the country and how community organisations could become more pro-active. He said: "Big companies make money by losing jobs. That is why we need smaller groups to get together and make a change."

"There are laws now that will allow community organisations to have more power and to do more as well."

"One of worst societies to be born in if you want to get ahead in life is the UK, as we have some of the worst levels of social mobility."

"You have things like, the family is where you begin to fight poverty, but we have actually broken up the family so we need to start changing these things."

Mr Blond also called the Government's work programme 'a bit of a disaster' and said he wanted to see LCH doing the work programme, as they had the links with the community.

Motorists urged to slow down for road workers

A NEW safety campaign has been launched featuring the families of people who maintain roads.

Central Bedfordshire Council and Bedford Borough Council have joined forces to launch their 'Our Daddies Work Here' campaign to urge drivers to take care as they pass roadworks.

Councillor Budge Wells said: "Coming across temporary roadworks may be frustrating, but attempting to shave a few minutes off a journey time could end up seriously injuring or killing someone who is simply doing their day job."

COULD YOU GIVE A CHILD A CHANCE?

Integrated Services Programme (ISP) is an independent, not-for-profit childcare organisation providing foster care to children with a wide range of emotional and behavioural needs. We have Centres in Bucks, London, Kent and Sussex. We were judged "Outstanding" in our latest Ofsted inspections.

ISP looks after children from many different ethnic and cultural backgrounds including white UK, African, African-Caribbean, Asian and dual heritage. We are keen to recruit carers from similar cultural backgrounds. In addition, we are currently experiencing a high demand to look after: children with various disabilities, children who are involved in the criminal justice system and 'parent & child' placed together.

IF YOU

- are single or a couple with life experience
- have the ability to work with children or young people
- have the ability to learn and rise to the challenge of fostering
- have patience, determination and a sense of humour
- have a spare bedroom
- are considering a possible change of career

ISP WOULD LOVE TO HEAR FROM YOU

We offer full training, 24 hour support and highly competitive allowances with generous tax concessions plus added benefits e.g. private medical treatment and respite.

Do you know someone who is sleeping rough?

Each year every local authority in the country carries out a survey that assists in estimating the number of people sleeping rough in their area. This is used to track the total number of people sleeping rough and to inform future planning proposals for homeless services both locally and nationally.

Rough sleeping levels have increased significantly in the last few years across the UK and it is believed that many people who have recently become homeless may not be known to existing services. This means that they will not be taken into account in the estimate and they will not be able to receive the support that is available to them.

This year, Bedford Borough Council, Central Bedfordshire Council, and Luton Borough Council are calling on members of the public for their help in gathering information about current rough sleeping patterns in the area so we can make sure our estimate is as accurate as possible and so that our existing outreach and accommodation services are able to offer support to people who are sleeping rough.

To ensure the estimate is carried out consistently, rough sleeping is defined where someone is either sleeping outside (maybe in a shop doorway, in a park, under a bridge or on a bench) or in a building or vehicle that is not designed to be lived in (maybe a garden shed, a car, a bus shelter or garage). People sleeping in a tent that is not on a campsite will also be classed as rough sleeping.

If you become aware of a person who is rough sleeping, please contact us on the appropriate rough sleeper referral email address shown below. Please include details of the location where you have seen the rough sleeper(s) rather than a description of the individual, as this will enable us to visit the site and link them to appropriate support services.

We are aware that some people will not want to engage with support services. Our approach takes this into account and our outreach workers will be mindful of it.

Firm wins contract for airport services

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE UK's leading provider of air traffic services and solutions has retained its contract with Luton Airport.

The deal, which will see National Air Traffic Services (NATS) continue to provide tower and engineering services, is for three years.

The contract was won following an open market tender process.

Glyn Jones, managing director of Luton Airport, said: "Our congratulations to NATS for retaining the contract to provide air traffic services at London Luton. We look forward to building on our good working relationship to ensure the continued safe and efficient running of air traffic services at the airport."

Richard Deakin, NATS' chief executive, said: "We are delighted to be continuing our close relationship with London Luton Airport and it is especially pleasing to have won this contract following a competitive process. It shows that NATS offers an outstanding service and excellent value for money.

"High quality air traffic management is vital to the safe, smooth and efficient running of any airport, helping to minimise delays while maximising available capacity. NATS has years of experience in providing exactly that."

In 2011, Luton carried 9.5 million passengers, with NATS controllers handling 99,296 flights, making it the fifth busiest in the UK. The contract award means NATS will continue to provide air traffic management services to all five major London airports.

Residents urged to get ready for winter

RESIDENTS and businesses are warned to 'look out for your neighbours' with winter around the corner.

Bedfordshire and Luton Local Resilience Forum (BLRF) is joining the 'Get Ready For Winter' campaign urging everyone to check they are prepared.

The campaign is encouraging everyone to plan ahead and make sure they are ready if Bedfordshire experiences severe winter conditions.

Severe weather, such as cold, snow, ice, high winds and flooding can have a huge impact on daily life and there are huge benefits to planning ahead.

Tips, advice and links are available on the What Would You Do If website, www.whatwouldyoudo.co.uk

Youth worker's joy at chance of award

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A YOUTH worker has been nominated for a prestigious award for his work in supporting youngsters in the community.

Kevin Mullins is one of four finalists for the National Youth Agency (NYA) Youth Worker Award 2012 after he was put forward by parents, volunteers and young people.

The nomination follows Kevin's community involvement over the years, which has included launching an initiative called the Street Robbery Awareness Project where victims and people who commit robberies work together.

He will be attending a ceremony in London on November 8 when the achievements of leaders in the youth work sector will be celebrated and the winner crowned.

He said: "I was overjoyed when I was informed that I had been nominated for a national youth work award. It is rare that you get the time to sit back and reflect on the impact your work actually makes. Anyone who does this work does so as they want to make a positive difference.

"This nomination was my confimation that I am achieving that. I am very fortunate to work with some brilliant and inspirational young people who demonstrate that issues young people are faced with are not individual to one particular culture.

"The membership of my disability group is evident that disability does not discriminate – it can affect us all. The young people and young volunteers on the project are a true reflection of Luton's diverse population and I believe the project is a positive example of what can be achieved when people forget what makes them different and celebrate what makes them the same."

Councillor Waheed Akbar said: "In Luton, we have a fantastic team of youth workers, making a positive impact on young people's lives. Well done to Kevin for getting nominated and becoming a finalist in the NYA award, which is a testament to his efforts."

Town planning to celebrate Games Makers

DO you know somebody from Luton who helped to make this year's Olympic and Paralympic Games such successes by volunteering as a Games Maker?

Luton Borough Council is hoping to celebrate the efforts made by the town's Games Makers who helped to ensure that a spectacular summer of sport ran smoothly.

If you know a Games Maker or were one yourself, contact Adam Divney before November 6 on adam.divney@luton.gov.uk

Alternatively, give him a call on 01582 548775.

Happy birthday, Bond

SKYFALL – REVIEW FROM THE ROYAL ALBERT HALL PREMIERE

Now showing
12A, 143 mins

WHO, what or where is 'Skyfall'?

From the moment the title of the new 007 film was announced earlier this year, the subject has been hotly debated by Bond fans and critics alike.

Some have suggested it's an operational code word (like Thunderball), others have speculated that it reflects the sky falling in on M16 and the career of its head 'M'.

As it turns out, none of the numerous guesses turn out to be true, and film-goers will have to wait until Skyfall's spectacular and explosive climax to find out the answer.

Suffice to say that a clue lies in Bond's orphaned childhood and a previous Bond title, 'The World is Not Enough'.

Probably the tightest scripted Bond in over 20 years, the film's star-studded cast, production values and plot make it a fitting tribute to the 50th anniversary of the world's longest running movie franchise of all time.

From the opening sequence, a classic motorcycle chase through the streets of Istanbul, which owes more than a nod to the Italian Job, the film has the audience on the edge of their seats throughout.

Bond, shot accidentally by another M16 agent on M's instructions while pursuing the man who stole a disk with the names of all NATO operatives embedded in terrorist organisations around the world, is missing presumed dead.

Again, in a twist that harks back to 'You Only Live Twice', a resurrected Bond returns to life to try and save M from the vengeance of the film's villain, the facially disfigured Silver.

When Ben Wishaw is introduced as techie Geek 'Q', Bond dryly observes that 'you've still got spots'.

'I', retorts Q, 'can take out more people on my laptop before I've had my first Earl Grey than you can in a year in the field'.

Despite great lines throughout, the two Bond girls, Berenice Marlohe and Naomi Harris, get very few of them.

A succession of pseudo and overt references to previous Bond films draws laughs and applause from the audience, especially the reappearance of the ejector seat Aston Martin DB5 which features in the stunning end climax.

Not only is this a classic Bond in every respect but one that sets the scene for the next film's personnel that's scheduled for late 2014.

Memories of a magical ballroom

CALIFORNIA BALLROOM EXHIBITION

Priority House Heritage Centre, Dunstable
Open until Saturday, December 8, 10am-4pm
(excluding Sundays)

OLYMPIAN Productions have teamed up with Dunstable Town Council to present the California Ballroom Exhibition.

During the 1940s, the California Ballroom was a music/concert venue based at the bottom of Dunstable Downs and originally hosted swimming baths, followed by go-karting, car racing and roller-skating.

The ballroom was built during the late 1950s and its official opening was on March 12, 1960. Once the doors opened, the crowds got to see stars such as Stevie Wonder, Ike and Tina Turner, Ben E King, Diana Ross, Lulu, The Rolling Stones and Al Green.

On display at the exhibition will be many artefacts from original posters, wall décor, Stevie Wonder's cufflink, signed contracts, photos and much more.

The event is free and you can visit www.california-ballroom.info more for details.

CHOICE

Andrew Marr

Andrew Marr's History of the World BBC1, 9pm

You've got to hand it to the journalist and political commentator Andrew Marr, he's approached his latest task – to chart the entire history of the world in a few hour-long documentaries – with aplomb. He's had a lot to cover, and for reasons of practicality we would have forgiven him had he brushed over a few facts – yet so far, his series has been pretty comprehensive. This week, he turns his attentions to the age of revolution between the 17th and 18th centuries, when the War of Independence raged in America.

BBC1

6.00 (GMT) Breakfast. 7.40 Match of the Day. 9.00 The Andrew Marr Show. 10.00 Sunday Morning Live. 11.00 Sunday Politics: Weather for the Week Ahead. 12.20 Countryfile. 1.20 Bargain Hunt. 2.05 Formula 1: Indian Grand Prix Highlights. 3.45 Nature's Miracle Babies. 4.45 Points of View. 5.00 Songs of Praise. 5.35 Nigel Slater's Dish of the Day. 6.05 BBC News; Regional News; Weather. 6.30 Countryfile. BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

Salary circa £32k per annum

We have a strong portfolio of market leading publications and websites and are looking to strengthen our successful sales operation with the addition of a new Business Development Team.

hen Herts & Essex Newspapers

YOUR PROFILE

You will have extensive account management experience, preferably within the media industry, a proven track record in generating new business and some previous experience of managing people would be an advantage. The ability to build strong, consultative relationships will be essential as will the ability to deliver professional presentations to groups or individuals at all levels.

We offer a competitive basic salary with an on-target bonus scheme, company car and the chance to work for a company that rewards excellent performance and invests in people who demonstrate an aptitude for creating opportunities.

Closing date for applications
 31st October 2012

THE ROLE

Reporting directly into the Publishing Director, you will be personally responsible for selling our products to a wide range of businesses in Hertfordshire and Essex. Your clients will be blue chip companies, B2B organisations, Local Authorities and leading local businesses; you will work with them to secure new business using innovative and effective multi-channel solutions.

You will maintain regular contact with the top companies in the area and build a network of contacts within each organisation so that you are able to track and respond to market activity, maximising opportunities as they arise. Working with a team of talented journalists and designers you will also have the opportunity to develop innovative new products.

It is the company policy to welcome applications from any individual regardless of ethnic origin, gender, disability, religious belief, sexual orientation or age. All applications will be considered on merit.

Applications should be sent for the attention of Nicole Want, Herts & Essex Newspapers, 40 Ware Road, Hertford SG13 7HU

We are looking for two experienced Teaching Assistants to work within our integrated provision for children from Luton who have emotional and behavioural difficulties. You will join our team of staff to work with pupils from the provision both individually and within classrooms supporting them in their learning.

You will need to:

- Be ready for a challenge
- Be enthusiastic and proactive
- Be experienced in working with schools
- Be qualified to NVQ Level 3
- Have a proven ability at working as part of a team in a challenging environment.

Visits to the school are welcome.

For further details and to apply please contact Mrs Fiona Constant at the school address, telephone 01582 706500 or email: fconstant@chantry.primaryluton.co.uk

Closing date for above roles: 7 November 2012.

Interview date for above roles: 13 November 2012.

Public Notices

St Mary's Catholic Lower School
Proposal to extend the age range of St. Mary's Catholic Voluntary Aided Lower School from 3 to 9 years to 3 - 11 years to create a primary school.
Notice is given in accordance with section 19(3) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 that The Governing Body of St. Mary's Catholic Voluntary Aided Lower School intends to make a prescribed alteration to St. Mary's Catholic Voluntary Aided Lower School, Dunstable Road, Caddington, Dunstable, Bedfordshire, LU1 4BB from 1 September 2013.
The proposal is to change the age range of St. Mary's Catholic Voluntary Aided Lower School by extending it from a 3 - 9 years lower school to a 3 - 11 years primary school.
This is to be implemented in two stages:
September 2013 - Year 4 children will be retained at the school and become a new year 5.
September 2014 - Year 5 children will be retained at the school and become a new year 6.
The current capacity of the school is 150 with 52 part time nursery places and when the proposals are implemented the proposed capacity will be 210 with 52 part time nursery places.
The current admission number for the school is 30 for year groups R - Y4 with 52 part time nursery places. The proposed admission number will remain the same. Total capacity for September 2013 is expected to be 180 with 52 part time places. Total capacity for 2014 is expected to be 210 with 52 part time nursery places.
This Notice is an extract from the complete proposal. Copies of the complete proposal can be obtained from: The Information Manager, Central Bedfordshire Council, Room DC2, Watling House, High Street North, Dunstable, Beds, LU6 1LF. It can also be viewed on the Council's website at: www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/schoolconsultations and the school website http://www.stmaryscatholiclower.co.uk/
Within six weeks from the date of publication of this proposal, any person may object to or make comments on the proposal by sending them to The Deputy Chief Executive/Director of Children's Services, Central Bedfordshire Council, Priory House, Chicksands, Shefford, Bedfordshire, SG17 5TQ.
Signed: Mr. Richard Neal
Chairman of the Governors, St. Mary's Catholic Voluntary Aided Lower School
Publication Date: 22nd October 2012
Explanatory notes
It is proposed that extending the age range of St. Mary's Catholic Voluntary Aided Lower School from 3 - 9 years to 3 - 11 years to create a primary school will provide improved standards in years 5 and 6 and therefore at the end of Key Stage 2. National data shows that changing school may impact negatively on pupils' progress and may result in a lack of curriculum understanding, continuity, and assessment agreement. This proposal will remove the transition at the end of year 4.
This proposal will also bring the school in line with the other Catholic school for this age range within the local authority.

CENTRAL BEDFORDSHIRE COUNCIL
(KINGSWAY, DUNSTABLE)
(TEMPORARY PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 2012

Central Bedfordshire

NOTICE is HEREBY GIVEN that the Central Bedfordshire Council has made an Order the effect of which will be to prohibit any vehicle, except a vehicle being used for fire, police or ambulance purposes in an emergency, from proceeding along the full length of Kingsway, Dunstable.

This temporary closure is required to enable road resurfacing works to take place and shall apply to such extent as may from time to time be indicated by the appropriate traffic signs. Where possible access will be maintained to property and premises but may be restricted from time to time according to local signing.

It is expected that the works will take place from Wednesday 24th to Thursday 26th October 2012 between 9am and 3.30pm. Specific dates will be advertised locally closer to the time.

The alternative routes available for vehicles affected by the proposed Order are:-

Proceed in an easterly direction on Church Street to Boscombe Road gyratory, turn left and continue to the junction with Boscombe Road/ College Road/ Court Drive link road, turn left and continue to Kingsway and vice versa. (One Way system on Court Drive will still be in operation and can be used to get to A5 as normal)

The proposed Order will come into operation on 24th October 2012 for a period of four months or until the proposed works have been completed, as detailed above, whichever is the earlier. For further information please contact Central Bedfordshire Highways, Tel: 0300 300 8049.

DATED 24th October 2012

Central Bedfordshire Council
 Technology House, Amphill Road
 Bedford MK42 9BD

Basil Jackson
 Assistant Director for Highways

Proposal to extend the age range of Houghton Regis Community Lower School from 3 - 9 years to 3 - 11 years to create a primary school.

Central Bedfordshire

Notice is given in accordance with section 19(1) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 that Central Bedfordshire Council intends to make a prescribed alteration to Houghton Regis Community Lower School, St Michael's Avenue, Houghton Regis, Dunstable, Bedfordshire LU5 5DH from 1 September 2013.

The proposal is to change the age range of Houghton Regis Community Lower School by extending it from a 3 - 9 years lower school to a 3 - 11 years primary school. This is to be implemented in two stages:

September 2013 - year 4 children will be retained at the school and become a new year 5.

September 2014 - year 5 children will be retained at the school and become a new year 6.

The current capacity of the school is 225 places in the main school plus provision for 52 part-time nursery places. Following implementation the proposed capacity will be 315 places in the main school plus provision for 52 part-time nursery places.

The current admission number for the main school is 45 for each year group. The proposed admission number will remain the same. Total capacity for September 2013 is expected to be 270 in the main school with 52 part-time nursery places. Total capacity for 2014 is expected to be 315 in the main school with 52 part-time nursery places.

This Notice is an extract from the complete proposal. Copies of the complete proposal can be obtained from: The Information Manager, Central Bedfordshire Council, Room DC2, Watling House, High Street North, Dunstable, Beds, LU6 1LF. It can also be viewed on the Council's website at www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/schoolconsultations

Within six weeks from the date of publication of this proposal, any person may object to or make comments on the proposal by sending them to The Deputy Chief Executive/Director of Children's Services, Central Bedfordshire Council, Priory House, Chicksands, Shefford, Beds, SG17 5TQ.

Signed: Edwina Grant

Deputy Chief Executive/Director of Children's Services

Publication date: 22 October 2012.

Explanatory notes

It is proposed that extending the age range of Houghton Regis Community Lower School from 3 - 9 years to 3 - 11 years to create a primary school will provide improved standards in years 5 and 6 and therefore at the end of Key Stage 2. National data shows that changing school may impact negatively on pupils' progress and may result in a lack of curriculum understanding, continuity, and assessment agreement. This proposal will remove the transition at the end of year 4.

The provision will bring Houghton Regis Community Lower School into line with all other Lower Schools in Houghton Regis, for which proposals to convert them to primary schools were published and approved earlier this year.

The school cannot accommodate the additional pupils and two new classrooms will be required from September 2013.

FLY DELTA

The launch of the Delta sees Chrysler embark on a four-year plan to re-build its dealer network and revamp its range in the UK and it could hardly have chosen a more competitive sector in which to begin its journey. It doesn't intend for the Delta to sell in high volumes but to carve out a significant niche for itself with its distinctive styling, spacious and versatile interior, executive class baubles and a broad range of strong, efficient engines, and the entry-level 1.4 T-Jet is far from being a disappointment.

With a wheelbase 100mm longer than the Fiat Bravo's and a high roofline, the cabin is certainly very roomy and versatile. The 60/40 split rear seat slides fore and aft on runners just like those at the front so rear passenger legroom can be played off against boot space. But even with it in its forward position Chrysler claims a class-leading 970mm of legroom. Passengers can even recline the backrests by up to 25 degrees to get really comfy, an experience further enhanced, in the top-of-the-range Limited, by the seats' stitched soft leather coverings.

It all helps to give the boldly styled cabin a sumptuous, up-market air that, for some, will make a refreshing change from the rather cool and austere German offerings but, for others, might seem just a little overwrought. But then, of course, this is a Fiat Group car wearing a Chrysler badge. The name maybe different but those who've been waiting such a long time for Lancia's return to the UK market should have something to celebrate as well.

Rendell breaks penalty hoodoo as Luton stage late comeback

FOOTBALL

BLUE SQUARE BET PREMIER LEAGUE
FOREST GREEN ROVERS 1
LUTON TOWN 2

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON TOWN chose the perfect time to end their penalty hoodoo by scoring one from 12 yards to secure a priceless three points away at fellow promotion hopefuls Forest Green Rovers yesterday.

The Hatters missed a staggering seven spot-kicks last season and another last week against Cambridge United but Scott Rendell showed nerves of steel at The New Lane, beating the keeper with a low effort to send the 1,002 away fans delirious.

The goal completed a stunning comeback for the Hatters who had found themselves 1-0 down with 15 minutes remaining.

But Stuart Fleetwood sparked the change in fortunes by curling in a superb equaliser, sparing the blushes of keeper Dean Brill who gifted Jan Klukowski the opener early in the second half, and then Rendell completed it by converting a nerveless penalty.

Paul Green was sent off for the home side for handling the ball in the box.

The game had all the ingredients of a top-of-the-table clash as fifth met third but neither side gave much away in a cagey opening.

The first clear chance for the Hatters came when the returning Rendell, back after missing last week's FA Cup win, headed a ball direct to the feet of Andre Gray, who beat his man to get into the box.

STRIKE: Stuart Fleetwood sends the ball on its way for Luton's first goal of the game

Picture: Gareth Owen

After twisting and turning to engineer some space, his strike from a tight angle hit the boot of the goalkeeper Sam Russell and the rebound effort from Fleetwood flew over the bar.

Another chance arrived minutes later when Fleetwood crossed a high ball into the box for Jon Shaw who looked poised to head at goal until Russell took the ball off his head. The home side looked dangerous when they broke but were unable to add a quality finish to some slick approach play.

Former Watford midfielder Al Bangura and Reece Styche powered a couple of long range efforts towards goal, but Brill dealt with them comfortably.

Yet Brill was anything but comfortable when he gifted Rovers the opener. The keeper, replacing Mark Tyler who was missing with a back injury, fumbled a cross from the flank and Jan Klukowski popped up into the box to poke the ball home.

The Hatters made no secret of their desire to lure the midfielder to Kenilworth Road from Rovers in the summer, and it was typical it was him who broke the deadlock.

With Rovers buoyant, the Hatters struggled to force their way back into the game and were suffering from a lack of end product.

But just as it was beginning to look desperate, Luton upped their game.

New boy Arnaud Mendy, signed on loan from Macclesfield, and striker Shaw both drew saves from the home keeper but there was nothing Russell could do about the equaliser.

Fleetwood, the former Rovers player, received the ball from Gray and unleashed a curling effort which looped into the top-right hand corner of the goal beyond the outstretched gloves of Russell for his tenth and best of the season.

Both sides pushed for a winner yet it looked like the points were going to be shared until Rendell delivered the killer blow to the home side and sent them spinning to their fourth consecutive league defeat.

The victory would have been even sweeter for the Hatters fans as Rovers had a strong Watford contingent in their ranks.

Luton Town: Dean Brill, Lathaniel Rowe-Turner, Janos Kovacs, Jon Shaw, Scott Rendell, Jake Howells, Simon Ainge, Stuart Fleetwood (JJ O'Donnell), Arnaud Mendy, Ronnie Henry, Andre Gray

Subs: Jake Robinson, Matt Robinson, Connor Essam, Dan Walker

Forest Green Rovers: Sam Russell, Chris Stokes, Al Bangura, Jamie Turley, Yan Klukowski, Reece Styche (Kieron Forbes), Matty Taylor, Eddie Oshodi, James Norwood, Arran Racine, Paul Green

Subs: Omar Koroma, Magno Viera, Kieron Forbes, Ed Asafa-Adjaye, Steve Brogan

Buckle: I know what FA Cup prize money can bring to our club

FOOTBALL

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON TOWN hope Nuneaton shelve their damage-limitation tactics and come to Kenilworth Road for Saturday's FA Cup first round tie with a positive mindset.

Kevin Wilkin's side showed minimal attacking intent in the league game earlier last month and seemed content to hold on for a draw until Alex Lawless struck twice in the last five minutes to secure the win for the Hatters.

Assistant coach Alan Neilson expects Nuneaton to throw off the shackles this weekend and try and win the tie at the first attempt.

"A lot of teams in the league come and sit back so we expect Nuneaton to come and try and win the game this time," Neilson said. "Teams come down and sit back, quieten the crowd, slow the game down and get home players nervy."

Neilson and Paul Buckle did not attend Nuneaton's replay victory over Telford in midweek as they were at the Dartford and Forest Green tie, but they "had the game [with AFC Telford] watched".

"We've beaten them [Nuneaton] at home already so we look forward to it," Neilson said. "The cup game will be totally different, though."

A place in the second round and a prize of £18,000 will be at stake for the winner. The Hatters pocketed £12,500 for their victory in the last round.

"I've been involved in good cup runs before and I know exactly what prize money it can bring to the club," said

Buckle. "Whether you've got a lot of money or whether you've not got any money, the financial implications are important and I want to get that prize money for us."

Cash from the cup run could be used by the club to invest in the team for the promotion bid. Neilson does not believe the cup acts as a distraction from the league.

"We want to go as far as we can in the FA Cup, keep the momentum going and we believe we can do that," he said. "Promotion is what we are geared towards but if get a good cup run then great."

"Some people say a good cup run can take the edge off the league but look at Crawley. They had a great cup run and they won the league so fingers crossed we can go and do the same."

Janos Kovacs, the Hungarian defender who deputised for the ineligible Simon Ainge in the last round, captured the global attraction of the competition by revealing he received lots of press attention back home when his then club Lincoln City were drawn against Premier League outfit Bolton Wanderers in the third round of the competition in 2010 season.

Although Lincoln lost 4-0, Kovacs had phone calls from journalists wanting to know about his involvement in the cup.

"I was lucky enough to be in the squad when Lincoln played Bolton," Kovacs said. "I was only on the bench and didn't play any of the game but afterwards reporters from Hungary were calling me up."

"Hopefully we can get there again, and this time I might be more in the spotlight."

Neilson was keen for Luton to be drawn at home but jokingly acknowledged "the groundsman probably didn't" and he got his wish when Earl Barrett, the former Oldham defender, pulled Luton's name out of the hat.

The draw means the Hatters are now just two wins away from being in the draw for the third round.

"The FA Cup is more important for lower division clubs, especially in the early stages," Kovacs said. "It's all about getting to the stage where you have the chance of playing against the biggest and highest teams."

"Hopefully we can get through the next two rounds, and then the dream is to play against any of the top sides, Manchester United, Manchester City, Chelsea, or Arsenal."

OLYMPIC STAR: Jessica Ennis at Stockwood Park Athletics Centre

Golden girl Ennis sprinkles her stardust on Luton winner

INTERVIEW

BY KEVIN AFFLECK
kevin.affleck@lsnmedia.co.uk

THE Hightown Community Church Hall would surely rank as the most unlikely place for an Olympic gold medal winner to be spending her only day off of the week. But that is exactly where Jessica Ennis, the darling of the London Games, could be found on Thursday.

The Great Britain star captivated the friends and family of Tim West, a 28-year-old shop assistant, in a Q&A session which was part of a prize he won for entering the Aviva Back The Team competition on Facebook.

It is a day he is unlikely to forget.

Earlier, he and four of his friends were put through their paces by Ennis in a circuit session at Stockwood Park Athletics Track.

Then he and his family enjoyed lunch at Luton Hoo with the Team GB golden girl. "It was wonderful to meet Jess but it [the training] really hurt," West said. "I was hoping she would go gentle but it was great doing it and, inside, I'm really really happy."

It was Ennis' first visit to Stockwood Park as she swapped her spikes for a stopwatch.

I needed to set myself another goal and give myself something to work towards. The world championships is something I'm aiming for and scoring 7,000 points. I don't know if I'll do that but it's something to keep me motivated.

"I tried to make it similar to what I do and had to be as gentle as possible but also push them," Ennis said. "They were really good and all pushed themselves."

Ennis is no stranger to Bedfordshire, though.

She has competed in the Bedford International Games several times and she credited the event with helping to prepare her for the gold medal performance at London 2012.

The Olympic heptathlon champion fondly recalled the meeting at Barker's Lane in June which took place seven weeks before she stormed to glory in the World Championships in Moscow next year and then Commonwealth Games in 2014.

"I've done the Bedford games a few times," Ennis said. "It's a good meeting, really well organised and a good one to do."

"It's a good stadium and a fast track and it does always help leading up to a major championship."

"They've relaid the track and it's really fast now. They've also got an indoor facility now which is great for warming up."

"It's a brilliant venue and I'm sure I'll be back there in the future."

Now in her fifth week of training after six weeks off, Ennis said she feels "some pressure" to maintain the remarkable level she attained at the London Olympic Stadium but doubts she will ever experience a night like Super Saturday again.

"I've never competed in front of a crowd like that before," Ennis said. "On the 800m the crowd carried me through. It made such a big difference."

Ennis said she is now working towards the World Championships in Moscow next year and the Commonwealth Games in Glasgow in 2014.

"I needed to set myself another goal and give myself something to work towards," Ennis said. "The world championships is something I'm aiming for and scoring 7,000 points."

"I don't know if I'll do that but it's something to keep me motivated."

Ennis racked up 6,955 points in London, a new national record, but explained she felt the weight of expectation in emulating the achievement of Denise Lewis, the Sydney Games gold medal winner who inspired her to take up the sport.

"I get nervous before every event," Ennis said. "But it's good to have that adrenaline so you feel like you are ready, ready to perform."

"I try to keep as calm as possible and reminding myself that being nervous is a good thing."

Ennis expects to experience similar butterflies when she gets married next year – "I can't wait to get married, I've been engaged for nearly two years now" – and says she would have carved out a career in psychology had she not been a world-class international athlete.

"It's what I studied and what I'm most interested in other than sport," Ennis said. "I probably would have worked harder at Uni and done a masters or something."

One of our success stories...

Who: Leslie Carey, 39

Where: The Slimline Clinic Nuneaton

When: 6 Weeks, June 2011

What Happened: Leslie had Ultrasonic Liposuction on her stomach and inner thigh but only lost $\frac{3}{4}$ inch after 1st visit. She then lost 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches after her 2nd visit, before losing 16 inches in total over the course of her therapy.

How: We focussed Ultrasonic Liposuction on Leslie's inner thigh and stomach once a week (1 session on each area) for 6 weeks. After her 1st session Leslie ate take away food on 4 of the evenings, as well as drinking several pints of beer most nights. This resulted in slow progress. However, after only losing $\frac{3}{4}$ inch in week 1, Leslie decided to drink a little more moderately, ate more balanced meals and as a result she then lost 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches between her 2nd & 3rd treatments. Leslie then resolved to adjust her lifestyle, she started eating & drinking in moderation, while making an effort to be more active generally. Leslie went on to lose 16 inches in total over her course which took in 12 sessions each on her stomach & inner thighs.

Why was Ultrasonic Liposuction Needed: Leslie has a demanding job as a director of an engineering firm, this lead to Leslie having a poor diet of take away food & beer, with little activity in her daily life due to a lack of time. Leslie arrived for her 1st session as a size 16, standing at 5' 6" tall

Where are they now: After achieving her target size and shape Leslie had lost 16 inches from her stomach and inner thigh. After completing her course and armed with her improved lifestyle and body shape Leslie felt inspired to take up Exercise! She began walking 3 evenings a week and therefore needed no more sessions to maintain her new size and shape!

The science behind losing Inches & feeling great!

Non-Surgical Ultrasonic Liposuction from The Slimline Clinic makes losing inches easy, especially from stubborn fatty areas like your belly, hips, arms and legs. Better still, it's fast, 100% pain free and can allow you to reach your ideal size in as few as 12 sessions.

Good vibrations

The treatment works using ultrasonic technology similar to that used in ultrasound scanning machines. The frequency of the sound wave targets fat cells, causing them to turn into a liquefied state. This liquid fat then drains away via the body's lymphatic system over the next 72 hours leaving treated areas with a flatter and firmer appearance.

The difference between The Slimline Clinic's Non-Surgical Ultrasonic Liposuction and surgical ultrasonic liposuction is we allow the body to naturally filter the liquid fat instead of making incisions in the patient and using a tool to suck the fat out which can cause pain, bruising and scars.

100% pain free

Our treatments are 100% pain free – in fact you will only feel a pleasant warming sensation as the ultrasound gets to work on your unwanted fat cells.
